Guidelines for Louisiana Notaries and the Governor's Remote Online Notary Authorization

April 20, 2020

On March 29, 2020, the Louisiana Notary Association board of directors issued a statement about our governor's remote-online-notary authorization. We addressed three areas of concern: (1) the absence of the necessary security and party-privacy provisions; (2) the absence of regulations concerning the platforms on which these specialized notarial services could be performed; (3) the doubtful legality of the authorization.

On April 7, 2020, the LNA's lobbyist and its governmental affairs liaison met with the secretary of state and the governor's executive council to discuss these concerns. As a result of that conversation, we agreed to consider assisting the governor by offering some guidelines dealing with our first two concerns while agreeing to disagree about the legality of the governor's authority to create new law under the provisions of the statutes governing the proclamation.

It is our goal with this statement to provide guidance for Louisiana notaries who choose to assist their constituents through remote online notary services.

Immovable Essentials: Developing Document Templates

Online Course
9:00AM-11:00AM

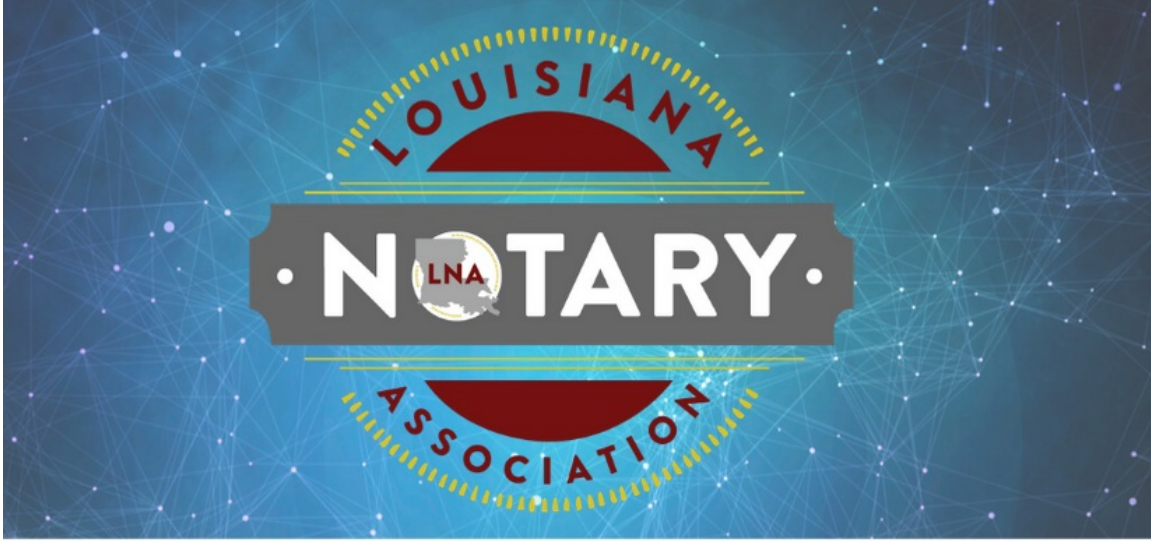

This course will help students to develop their own framework for the creation of documents transferring immovable property. Students can expect to learn the basic formats for sales, credit sales, donations, and quitclaims, all to help develop their own document templates for use in their notarial practices. We also will analyze example documents and study different types of useful language clauses to keep on hand for a variety of situations.
